

they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

‘Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Prayer

Loving God,
call us together as your people; transform us with your love.
Transform our hearts, that we may love generously.
Transform our eyes, that we may see your grace.

Transform our hands, that we may serve others.
Transform our spirits, that we may be the body of Christ,

Pastoral Prayer

Prayer of Confession

Caring God,
you call us to be the body of Christ:
to live in community, to care for one another,
to use our different gifts.
Instead of working to sustain community,
we follow our own desires.
Instead of trusting in your care, we think we can do it alone.
Forgive our neglect of others.
Give us obedient spirits, that we may care for one another, depend on your love, and use our gifts for your gospel. Amen.

Words of Assurance
